in aid of The Alzheimer's Society.

Derek Smith, the Westerfield organist and choirmaster, has once again gathered a large choir together to sing in the above, which will have a varied selection of songs, both sacred and secular, in it's programme . He does this every year for a different charity, and members of Westerfield and benefice choirs and organisations are amongst those who join him.

Tickets for the concert can be obtained from Derek; do come and support this very worthwhile charity and enjoy an evening of music with us!!
